Re: Electoral Board Appointment

To the Honorable Presiding Circuit Court Judge,

On behalf of the Buckingham Republican Committee, and in accordance with the Code of Virginia, I am formally submitting the following three candidates for appointment as the Republican representative on the Buckingham Electoral Board. All of the candidates are residents of Buckingham County and registered voters.

As the chair of the Republican Party, I believe all three nominees will serve the citizens of Buckingham with dignity, fairness and respect. I asked

Tambra Riggs:

Having lived in Northern Virginia for many years to raise her now young adult children, Tambra moved ten years ago to Central Virginia and was hired as an adjunct Professor of Psychology and taught a full-time load of courses at Germanna Community College in the Fredericksburg area and later Lord Fairfax Community College in Warrenton, Virginia. Several years ago, she moved to Buckingham County when she was hired (May 2018) for an academic position at Longwood University in Farmville, Virginia. Currently a full-time Lecturer of Psychology, teaching five courses per semester. She is the only faculty member teaching Lifespan Development Psychology, she teaches two sections of Introduction to Psychology, and occasionally Abnormal Psychology courses

Jose' Antonio Breland:

Jose' is a farrier in Buckingham County and lives in Yogaville. He is very active in his church and community. While he is not a member of the Buckingham Republican Party, I feel he would be a quality electoral board member.

Louis Gutierezz:

Born and raised in Dallas, Texas, Louis moved to Virginia in 2010 and has lived in Buckingham County for around five years. Recent long-term jobs have been in the Department of Correction, where he was a security officer at Dillwyn Correctional Center and later, a case work counselor at Coffeewood Correctional Center. In the Dallas area, he owned McKinney I Movers, a successful medium-sized household goods mover, for many years. Louis earned his bachelor's degree in Sociology from University of Virginia and then completed his master's degree in Criminal Justice from St. Joseph's University. He also has completed all the required coursework towards his Ph.D. in Criminal Justice from Liberty University and will be completing and defending his dissertation research and is slated to graduate next year.

Thank you for considering these candidates for appointment to the Buckingham County Electoral Board.

Sincerely,
